Narrative Explanation, if needed

New inspection as application was never fully completed from back in June. Application was missing veterinarian information but was signed by their veterinarian. I have emailed Bert over last few months but no response. I was informed today that email address had changed. I performed another inspection today. The completed application was located and it will be sent in to Raleigh.

Continue to keep boarding area clutter free once license is issued. Small scale boarding facility. Ok to license once application is received at the Raleigh office.
