NOTICE OF WARNING

We have an investigative case report showing that you violated the North Carolina Compulsory Meat Inspection Law. This reported violation was discussed with you on February 8, 2013. Specifically, our investigation revealed that you had processed, transported, stored, offered for sale and/or sold cooked pork rolls wrapped in banana leaves (Gio Lua), which did not contain State (NCDA) or Federal (USDA) marks of inspection or required labeling, to a retail store (Pan Market, 805 Hope Mills Road, Fayetteville, NC) for the sole purpose of resale to the general public. In a signed statement dated February 8, 2013 you stated you processed the cooked pork rolls at your home.

Please be advised that the sale of misbranded and/or non-inspected meat products is a violation of North Carolina General Statute (N.C.G.S.) §106-549.23 with civil and/or criminal penalties. Please be advised that you will not receive any further warning with regard to this violation. If you should continue to sell misbranded and/or non-inspected meat products, we will pursue legal action against you to invoke the penalties associated with these continued violations. I certainly hope this expensive action will not be necessary. An officer from this department will visit you periodically to verify compliance.

Sincerely,

Donald H. Delozier
State Director
