WHAT: It's Baaaack! Bravo's "Top Chef: The Tour 2," a nationwide 21-city promotional tour featuring a brand new state-of-the-art customized traveling 18-wheeler semi-truck, with an expansive space to accommodate more fans for each on-site demonstration, will visit Raleigh, NC on May 6 on its twelfth city-stop. Bravo, Time Warner Cable and Hardee's will bring "Top Chef" passionate fans and affiliate partners the ultimate culinary experience, complete with cooking demonstrations and food tastings hosted by former winners and chef'testants. Watch what happens when "Top Chef: The Tour 2" pulls up to the State Farmer's Market.

The "Top Chef" truck is an impressive 44-foot self-sufficient moving vehicle equipped with power and water, and includes a state-of-the-art kitchen. The truck will expand outwards with its kitchen, stage, demonstration area and 60 seats, all under an enclosed canopy. Additional guests will be able to view demonstrations from outside of the seating area or from a 50" plasma television in the activity area. "Top Chef: The Tour 2" is sponsored by Quaker and produced by mobile tour specialist, LeadDog Marketing Group. To learn more about "Top Chef: The Tour 2" visit www.bravotv.com/thetour.
